F. A. Leightey - Cleo Shambaugh Gervin - Harry Gleim
New Series No. 30 A project of the Shambaugh Families Society. April - June 1952

Mr and Mrs Howard P. Walker, La Moille, Ill.

I read in the Sept. - Oct 1951 issue of our Family News-Letter and am proud to belong to this family, and I enjoy the News very much. Mrs Walker and I spent a few weeks in the south in March and April.

Our second son Allen John, a great grandson of Peter Shambaugh is in the army at Camp Cook, Calif., He is a mess sargeant.

Our daughter Janice Beth was married June 10, 1951 to Francis Minklin, he is also in Camp Cook and Janice is living with a friend 175 miles from camp.

Rev. Harry Gleim, Hardy, Nebr.

It is my sad duty to report to you the death of my only brother LeGrand Gleim of New Vernon, New Jersey. His wife writes that <sup>in March</sup> "LeGrand went to one of our neighbors to clean out some flower beds. We think he must have been burning trash and the meadow back of the house caught fire. He and Mrs Jeffrey were trying to put it out when his clothing caught fire and his legs were quite badly burned. He either had a stroke or a heart attack during this time and went into a coma from which he never came out. The doctor at the hospital told me that he didn't suffer."

There were five brothers in our family, the oldest three of which died young. LeGrand would have been 71 years old on April 22 of this year and I (Harry) had planned on visiting him this summer.
