Mattie B. Grapes, 732 Selma Ave. Selma, Ala.

Nona and I are always glad to get the N-L, but some times don't see any reports of those we know.

My youngest grandson, John I. Hanson has just graduated from N.R.O.T.C. in Los Angeles. He is now stationed in San Diego for navy school of eight weeks, then will be on the ship for nine months in So. Pacific. His mother is Madge Hanson at 15615 Washington st, Compton, Calif.

My father was Charles Daniel Shambaugh, born 1812 in Va. and moved to Iowa in 1856. I was born Oct. 30, 1865.

P.S. - Cloy D. Shambaugh of Wichita, Kan. has been very ill and has moved to 725 Wisconsin, Milton, Kan. Cloy is my nephew.

(Also received a note from Ben F. Shambaugh of Ottawa, Kan. telling of Cloy's change of address about May 1st.)

The Leightey Families go vacationing:

Wayne, Grace and two of their children spent a few days in June enjoying a trip to Niagara Falls and over into Canada, returning through Windsor, Detroit and Toledo. Traveling around 800 miles.

Howard, Dorothy and four of their children left July 25 for a call on F. Guy Shambaugh and families in Rossville, Ga., also taking in the sights on Lookout Mt. Then to the Smoky Mts. in Tenn. and a call on Cleo Gervin in her mountain home, then over the Sky Line Drive to Washington D. C. and home, traveling 1900 miles.

Your editor and wife, and Mrs Anna Cogsil of Lamartine, O. left July 22 for Iowa, stopping along the way to call on Sam and Edna Baker near Plymouth, Ind. had a fine visit with them, and I believe they are thinking very much of coming to our National reunion, we hope. Then on to Aurora, Ill. and a cabin for the night.

In the morning we left for Browntown, Wisc. to see Iva and Leah Tomlinson who used to live near Lamartine, youought have heard Anna and the girls reminisce. Iva and Leah went along with us to Albany to call on Mr and Mrs Gene Laughridge.

We surely enjoyed our visit with the girls, and by the way folks, they are coming to our National reunion. (So why don't all the rest of you folks come too? make it a BIG SHAMBAUGE DAY in the U. S. A.)

Leaving the next day for Mildred Shambauchs at Volga, Iowa, and staying with her a few days. Saturday evening, Elma Ross and Rev William Seeley of Arlington, Frank and Ethel Seeley of Mason City came in and we all enjoyed supper together. Ethel is a sister of Harry Gleim of Hardy, Nebr. our former news letter editor.

We attended the Shambaugh - Derflinger reunion at Arlington on Sunday, meeting some more Shambauchs and had a fine picnic dinner together. Mr and Mrs Bert Shambaugh their daughter and husband Mr and Mrs Arthur Tallege of Richland Center, Wisc. were there for their first time too. From the reunion we stopped for a call on Elma Ross in Arlington.

On Monday, Mildred went with us to the historic Prairie Du Chien in Wisc. (the great fur trading center in the early days) to see the Villa Louis and Museum there, the show place of the mid-west. Our guide was lovely, dressed in the costume of that early day over a hundred years ago. A visit here should surely be included on your vacation tour. We ate our dinner here on there picnic grounds.

Villa Louis was built by the first millionaire in Wisconsin, Col. Dousman. In the evening we were entertained at supper at the home of Mildred's sister and brother in law Mr and Mrs Oaklin Probert.

We left Mildred's on Tuesday for the southern part of Iowa, visiting the Amana Freezer Plant on our way to Mt. Pleasant where we enjoyed a visit with an aunt of Mrs Cogsil's. On our way home the next day we stopped for an overnight visit with Kathleen and Paul Yoder near Wabash, Ind. John Howard Shambaugh and family came in to spend the evening. Arriving home the next day, the 29th., safe and sound after a 1400 mile trip.

Reunion report by Elma Jane Ross, Arlington, Iowa

Sunday July 25, 1954, the Shambaugh - Derflinger branch of the Barrow Family held there thirty third annual reunion at the Arlington City Park. About forty members of this clan partook of a bountiful dinner. We ate, F.A. Leightey of Upper Sandusky, O. asked the blessing, and we sang the birthday song for Scott Gundlach, of Oelwein, Iowa and Mrs Anna Cogsil of Lamartine, O.

The Pres. Gertrude Stapel of Oelwein called the business meeting to order and gave a hearty welcome to all, told some family history of the Shambaugh - Derflingers and gave recognition to different age groups. We were especially happy to have some other branches of Shambauchs present- Mr and Mrs F.A. Leightey of Upper Sandusky, O. Mrs Anna Shambaugh Cogsil of Lamartine, Mr and Mrs Bert Shambaugh and daughter and husband Mr and Mrs Arthur Tallege of Richland Center, Wisc. Mr Shambaugh gave an interesting talk about his Shambaugh kin.

Officers elected were- Gertrude Stapel, Pres. James Carnall, Vice Pres. Elma Ross, Sec'y. and Hazel Manchester, Treas.

Mattie Carnall, nearly 84 was the oldest member present and her granddaughter, Rebecca Jean Carnall, 5 months was the youngest.

Our reunion is the last Sunday in July at the Arlington City Park and any Shambaugh kin are welcome.
