The 1956 National Shambaugh Reunion was held in the Fair Grounds at Upper Sandusky, Ohio on Sept. 2, those present really enjoyed themselves again visiting with each other and meeting several new members of the Shambaugh families.

After prayer by Rev. Harry Gleim of Edgar, Nebr. we all enjoyed a fine Shambaugh dinner together. The President, Leon Trautwein of Upper Sandusky took up the business of the day. The business about the Shambaugh History was turned over to Mr. Gleim, and after much discussion, Mr. Gleim suggested we set up a Foundation for the purpose of publishing a Shambaugh Families History, to sell non-profit shares of 25.00 each to get the book printed. A motion was put to set up this Foundation of 100 shares at 25.00 each, and each share to include a complete book, but not to be valid until all 100 shares are sold. The motion carried, and a committee selected, made up of all the presidents of the National Shambaugh Reunion, with F. Guy Shambaugh of 1407 McFarland Ave. Rossville, Ga. as Chairman and Mary Alice Dantzler as his secretary.

(Ed. note: How many of you Shambaughs will respond to our Shambaugh Foundation call? a hundred of you should make possible a Shambaugh Families History book available to all.) * * *

Mrs. Vernon Shambaugh, 361 N. Spring St. Wilmington, Ohio
We would like to receive a copy of the N-L. Bill got a hold of some old Shambaugh letters and we found them very interesting.

I married Vernon Shambaugh about 21 years ago, we have one son, William C. "Bill" age 17, we named him after his grandfather Shambaugh who was born and raised near New Burlington, O. I understand this group of Shambaughs came from Penn. in about 1735. We would surely enjoy meeting some of these that may be from the same family as my husband's father. * * *

RUCH
Mrs. Elsie and Walter Applegate, South Whitley, Ind.

Although I know very few Shambaughs, I read your interesting letters. The Reunion must be interesting too, but we'll have to attend sometime in the future.

There are three of us out here - my mother Mrs. Clarence Applegate, my husband Walter Ruch and myself. Clarence's mother was Mrs. Lucretia Shambaugh. * * *

Dr. and Mrs. George Shambaugh, 703 Central St. Framingham Center, Mass.

George was one of four from the quartermaster selected by the government to represent the Army at the International Congress of Entomologists, in Montreal, Canada Aug. 17 to 25. He brought me a beautiful stole and purse to match, and an Eskimo carved from soapstone by an Eskimo. * * *

Mrs. Arnold C. Ross, 317 Brookes Ave. San Diego 3, Calif.

I have two full years ahead of me as Regent for my D.A.R. Chapter here in San Diego, along with other activity in Clubs. However, when these duties are completed, I hope to be able to start going more deeply into my geneological records. * * *

Harley B. Shambaugh, R3, Box 733, Tucson, Ariz.

We haven't been doing anything exciting this year but work, eat and sleep, except, my wife and I went to the Methodist Annual Conference in Redlands, Calif. I am lay delegate from our church. We are fine. Some of these years I hope we can be at the reunion again.

Major Wilson R. Shambaugh, 2889 So. Abington St., Arlington 6, Va.

I am interested in becoming a member of your organization and would appreciate a copy of the Shambaugh News-Letter.

My claim to the Shambaugh family is through my father, Guy James Shambaugh (deceased) born in Columbus, Ohio in 1892, and my grandfather Meshack Shambaugh, born in Licking Co. Ohio. In September, Mr and Mrs Verner Shambaugh and six of his neighbors went to Cadiz, O. to see the big Power Shovel, The "Mountaineer", the world's largest electric powered shovel, as high as a 14 story building, a shovel with a capacity of 90 tons, the total weight about 5 1/2 million pounds and a cost of nearly $3 million. We were met at Cadiz by Mr and Mrs Ross Dosson who showed us around, we also had our basket dinner at the Dosson home. In the afternoon we went through the Scio Pottery. We also visited Mrs Eva Henderson in Scio.

On August 16, 1956 Floyd and Zada Shambaugh of Wooster, Mrs Carrie Smith of Perrysville and Walter and Leefe Shambaugh of Upper Sandusky enjoyed dinner at the Verner Shambaugh home near Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

On Friday, July 29, 1956, Howard and Dorothy Leightey of Upper Sandusky, O. and their family, Ann, Rita, Linda and Howard Jr. taking your editor along, left on a trip to Southern California, going by way of Indianapolis, St. Louis, Springfield through the Boston Mts. where we stopped at the snake farm, also saw some baby rattlers, then on to Ft. Smith, Ark. where we stayed with Dorothy's brother Roger Hotelling and family from Saturday afternoon to Monday. On Sunday they took us thru the Fort Smith Army Barricks, where Roger is a nurse, and many other interesting places.

From there via Oklahoma City (with oil wells in their back yards, and most every where else), Amarillo, Albuquerque, thru the Petrified Forest, also stopped at the Meteor Crater and Sunset Crater near Winslow, Ariz., Painted Desert and the GRAND CANYON, and Oh! Boy, how deep and far across at places, it was really a wonderful GRAND sight. Then on to Needles and thru the Desert in the evening, the temperature going to around 97 part of the time on our thermometer, on to Barstow, San Bernardino and nearby Bloomington, our destination, staying with another brother of Dorothy's, Paul Hotelling and family, seeing the sights around there from Thursday to Tuesday.

Paul and his family took us to the Kaiser Steel Plant where he works, which really was an interesting tour, seeing the process from molten metal to the finished product. We spent a day going down into Mexico, which was a very interesting place in many ways, and eating our dinner along the Mexican shores of the Great Pacific, Ann and Rita went swimming in the Ocean. On our way back we stopped a short time at Capistrano and heard the ringing of the bells there.

I also had the privilege of seeing, for the first time, our Uncle Will Shambaugh's two daughters, Lulu, of L.A. and Pearle, of Gardena and some of her families, our time was all to short.

On Sunday we all drove up on Bear Mountain for a picnic dinner, driving over 40 miles to go up 7000 feet, a very exciting trip. On our way down the mountain we could look down at San Bernadino, at night, a wonderful sight when all lit up.

Paul's and Howard's spent a day shopping in San Bernadino while the young folks went swimming in the pool at Fontana, in the evening I drove over to get them, but I won't say a word about getting stuck in the sand on our way back, yes, we got out very nicely, when the rest all got out and pushed.

On Monday evening, Aug. 6, we celebrated Howard's birthday in Paul and Elinor's back yard with a steak barbecue, ice cream and cake with all the trimmings.

Well, it seemed that the only way to get back home again was to start out, so, we did just that, early the next morning (Tues.) via Barstow, seeing some snakes along the way, they were all in cages though, also some baby rattlers, and a mummified mother and baby dug up from Death Valley. Then on to Las Vegas, no, we did not gamble but seen where it was done, also the fine Hotel Resorts. Hoover Dam was next, going down 1400 feet in the elevator, seeing the large turbines, going thru tunnels from Nevada into Arizona and back again, it was really something worth while to see.

Thru Zion National Park to Salt Lake City with its many Temples, ate our dinner at Salt Air Resort where most of our group went swimming, while Rita and I drove the electric cars. We stopped at the Dinosaur National Museum, then on to Granby and a place near there to stay all night, Pontiac Lodge, in a cabin with a wood cook stove, bunk beds, carry your own water, etc. and enjoyed it for a change.

Then over a road along a beautiful stream which wound between tall mountains on each side, a very beautiful drive, to Rocky Mountain National Park, where we thru ew snowballs (in August) and into Estes Park, then Loveland, and north into Cheyenne, then Buffalo Bill Cody's town where one of his buffalo, or one of the descendants, was kept in a cage, they also had some white bees there, and more baby rattlers.

We drove around thru Boys Town, near Omaha, it surely was a nice place, the the grounds and buildings were very attractive and well kept, then into Omaha, and a bee line for home, arriving Sunday evening the 12th. of August, 6000 miles.

Wayne and Grace Leightey and son Danny of Upper Sandusky, O. left on "riday Aug. 22, 1956 via Kenton, O. Lexington, Ky. and on route 27 to Rossville, Ga. arriving early Saturday morning at the home of F. Guy Shambaugh and family. We were up on Lookout Mt. and took a round trip on the Incine, also to Ruby Falls. That night we stayed with Ruth and Bud Nave near Rossville.

On Sunday the 24th. we attended the wedding of Bryan Oliver Dantzler and Margaret Alice Cooper, then after the reception we headed for St. Mark Fla. on the Gulf Coast, and across the state thru the Capital, Tallahassee, to Marine Land on the Atlantic coast, then to St Augustine and Jacksonville.

From there we went to Lynesboro, Va. to spend the night with Grace's cousin, then headed for home, arriving Thursday evening. 2700 miles

The Gleim's from Edgar, Nebr. also attended the wedding of Bryan and Margaret and visited other Shambaughs as well as taking in the Shambaugh National Reunion on their vacation trip this year.

Just received a note from George and Ruth Shambaugh of 703 Central St. Framingham Center, Mass. saying that 'silent nights are over' with the birth of a daughter, Amy Kathleen on Jan. 10, 1957. (Congratulations)

Evangelist and wife, Guy H. and Anna May Kintz, of Reedsburg, Wisc. writes- This year has been filled with joys and sorrows, but thru it all the presence of the Lord has been revealed. We held sixteen series of Revival and Evangelistic services in six states; Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin. We have assisted in several other churches and services.

Our ministry has consisted of calling with Pastors, conducting Childrens meetings, Youth meetings, Adult Prayer services, regular Evangelistic services, leading the congregational music, presenting some instrumental and vocal numbers, beside the Gospel Message. All the work has been very interesting, especially as we see people make definite decisions to serve the Lord, or to accept Christ as their own personal Saviour. It is also a joy to see young people listen to the call of the Lord to enter some definite form of Christian service, to become a minister, a missionary, nurse or teacher.

One of the sorrows, was the passing of my father, Ned C. Kintz, on July 10, 1956, over 88 years of age, and some other relatives.
