New Series No. 66. A Project of the Shambaugh Families Society. April - July 1960

Harry and Ina Gleim. This note from Dike, Iowa

We had a very nasty spring, it even snowed on Easter. We went to Mason City the next week after Easter to see the Seeley's and found them well. Enclosed is a clipping of the Shambaugh - Yearous wedding --

Cynthia, daughter of Mr and Mrs Frank Shambaugh was married to Stanley Yearous, son of Mr and Mrs Jerome Yearous of Wadena on April 24, 1960 in the Methodist Church at Arlington, Iowa.

The bride was employed by the Waterloo Daily Courier, her husband is engaged in farming near Wadena. Cynthia's father is a nephew of Alma Ross and my first cousin twice removed.

June 29, -- received another letter about their change of address.

At my age having to retire from a regular pastorate, I asked for a post - retirement pastorate, and was finally assigned to the country charge at Mackey, a dozen miles out of Boone, Iowa. So we are now living at 1320 Carroll St. in Boone, in a nice one floor, six room house and fruit and shade trees in the yard.

Ina's daughter lives sixteen blocks away on the same street.

With your editor and families --

Your editor and wife enjoyed a visit with Anna Cogsil and family in Lamartine, Ohio from May 28, to June 1.. Also called on Ross and Alice Dosson.

We talked over some reunion plans with our president Mrs Mary Kohler. On our way home we called on Dr and Mrs Henry Shambaugh in Belleville, O. Their daughter Teresa is giving music lessons.

Then on Sunday, June 12, Anna Cogsil and daughter Julia and husband Jim Litzberg with their daughters Dora Ann and Susie, and sons Tom and Chuckie visited with us here in Upper Sandusky for the day. They also called on Dale and Gladys Shambaugh. Our sons, Howard and Wayne with their families were here too.

Our granddaughter, Miss Rita Leightey graduated from the Upper Sandusky High School on June 3rd..

Our grandson, Dean E., son of Wayne and Grace Leightey of near Upper Sandusky was badly burned on back and left side when a container of very hot water was accidentally spilled on him, the evening of July 4th. He was taken to the Wyandot Memorial Hospital for treatment. Dean is improving nicely at this writing, July 9th. * * *
